Victory tour a go if champ has no flu

By Steve Penabazquez
 (Inquirer Staff Writer) — Manny Pacquiao's victory tour in the United States will be a reality, provided he is fit to travel. The boxer, who won the 2008 Olympic gold medal in boxing, is expected to travel to the United States for a victory tour.

At least one source close to Pacquiao said that the boxer is in good health and is expected to travel to the United States for a victory tour.

At the moment, it is difficult to say for sure if the boxer is fit to travel. Pacquiao's manager, Al Haymon, said that the boxer is in good health and is expected to travel to the United States for a victory tour.

Egypt backs RP bid for OIC seat

By Dennis B. Reyes

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — The Egyptian government has said it will back the Philippines' bid to win a seat on the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) Council of Ministers.

Secretary of Foreign Affairs Al-Farouk El-Dars said Wednesday that Egypt's support for the Philippines' bid is a sign of the country's solidarity with the Muslim world.

El-Dars said the Philippines' bid is a sign of the country's solidarity with the Muslim world and its support for the OIC Council of Ministers.

2 Cabinet officials draw flak for infomercials

By Marlon Sison
and Tere Guevarra

ALBINO SENATOR PANGLOSS and cabinet secretary PANGLOSS are receiving criticism for the infomercials they produced for the Philippine National Police (PNP).

Senator Pangloss, who is also the PNP's chief of staff, and PNP chief of police Gen. Romeo Prudente, who is also the PNP's chief of staff, are the two main figures in the PNP's infomercials.

The infomercials, which are being shown on television, are being criticized for being too commercial and for being too long.

'Dante' death toll in Bicol reaches 25

MANILA, Sept. 12 (AP) — The death toll from the typhoon that hit the Philippines last week has risen to 25, with at least 100 people missing, officials said. The typhoon, known as Dante, hit the Bicol region of the Philippines last week, causing widespread damage and loss of life. The death toll is the highest in the region, with most victims reported to be in the provinces of Ilocos Norte and Ilocos Sur. The typhoon also caused significant damage to infrastructure, including roads, bridges, and power lines. The Philippine government has declared a state of calamity in the affected areas and has provided relief assistance to the victims.

C. Luzon docs want H1N1 patients taken to Manila

MANILA, Philippines — A group of doctors in Cebu, Philippines, are demanding that the government take H1N1 patients to Manila for treatment. The doctors, who are part of the Philippine Society of Infectious Diseases, say that the current treatment facilities in Cebu are inadequate and that the government should provide better care for the patients. They also say that the government should provide more resources for the treatment of H1N1 patients, including the purchase of antiviral drugs and the construction of new treatment facilities. The doctors are also demanding that the government provide more information about the disease and its treatment to the public. They say that the government should also provide more support for the healthcare workers who are treating the patients.

MILF rebels attack plantation — 1 dead

MANILA, Philippines — A group of MILF rebels attacked a plantation in the Philippines, killing one person. The rebels, who are part of the Moro Islamic Liberation Front, say that they were fighting against the government's military operations in the region. They also say that they were fighting for the rights of the Moro people. The government, on the other hand, says that the rebels were attacking the plantation because it was a target of their military operations. The government also says that it was trying to protect the lives of the people living in the area. The attack took place in a remote area of the Philippines, and the rebels were armed with rifles and other weapons. The government is now trying to locate the rebels and bring them to justice. The people living in the area are now feeling scared and are trying to move to safer places.

W. Visayas execs urge Senate to pass bill allocating P2B for iPhone, Frank or cash

MANILA, Philippines — Executives from Western Visayas are urging the Senate to pass a bill allocating P2B for iPhone, Frank or cash. The executives, who are part of the Western Visayas Chamber of Commerce and Industry, say that the bill will help the region's economy by providing more resources for the development of the area. They also say that the bill will help the region's people by providing them with more jobs and income. The bill, which is called the Western Visayas Development Bill, was introduced in the Senate by a senator from the region. The bill provides for the allocation of P2B for the development of the region, including the construction of new roads, bridges, and other infrastructure. It also provides for the allocation of funds for the development of the region's people, including the provision of more jobs and income. The executives are now trying to get the bill passed by the Senate as soon as possible.

New summer treat: Veggie baba-baho

MANILA, Philippines — A new summer treat called Veggie baba-baho is being sold in Manila. The treat, which is made of vegetable juice and baba-baho, is a popular snack in the Philippines. It is made by blending vegetable juice with baba-baho, a traditional Filipino snack made of rice and sugar. The result is a refreshing and healthy treat that is perfect for the summer. The treat is being sold by a small business in Manila, and it is very popular with the people who buy it. The business owner says that the treat is a new addition to the menu and that it is very popular with the customers. The treat is also being sold in other parts of the Philippines, and it is becoming more popular. The business owner is happy to see that the treat is being enjoyed by so many people.

Election spending to boost GDP in 2010

Finance official says polls to aid economy by at least 0.5%

By WILLIAM P. CHAN

MANILA, May 10 (AP) — Election spending is expected to boost the Philippine economy by at least 0.5 percent in 2010, a finance official said.

The official, who declined to be named, said the government expects election spending to be around 0.5 percent of GDP in 2010. He said the government is not planning to increase the budget for election spending in 2010, but it is planning to increase the budget for election spending in 2011.

Guarantee fund for securities investors proposed

The Ontario Securities Commission (OSC) has proposed a new guarantee fund to protect investors in the event of a major failure by a securities dealer. The fund would be funded by a levy on all securities dealers and would be used to pay out claims for losses suffered by investors.

The OSC is currently reviewing the proposal and expects to make a decision in the coming months. The fund would be a first-of-its-kind in Canada and would provide an additional layer of protection for investors.
